St. James's, October 21.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Conway, has, by him, been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our sincere Congratulation on the safe Delivery of the Queen, the Birth of a Princess Royal, and also on the Marriage of your Royal Sister with that Great and Respectable Potentate the King of Denmark: Your faithful Subjects considering these pleasing Events, and every Increase of your Illustrious Family, publick Blessings, as they add to the Happiness of the best of Kings, and, at the same Time, render more secure the inestimable Benefits enjoyed under your Majesty's most auspicious Protection.

And here, Dread Sir, permit us to make our grateful Acknowledgments for your Majesty's most tender and gracious Attention to the Welfare of your People, in restraining the further Exportation of Wheat, and prohibiting the same from being distilled. So seasonable an Exertion of your Royal Authority demands the utmost Return of Gratitude and Duty from all your Subjects, whose Fears were awakened on Account of a deficient Harvest. We trust, that through the Spirit and Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the Minds of honest and good Men will be quieted, and the Necessities of your People effectually relieved: And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as we always esteem your Paternal Regard for these Kingdoms the true Basis of our Prosperity, so we shall make it the Study of our Lives to conduct ourselves, in our several Stations, as becomes Subjects deeply sensible of the Wisdom and Justice of your Majesty's Government.

St. Petersburgh, August 30. This Day, being the Feast of St. Alexander Newski, was celebrated here with the usual Ceremonies. Her Imperial Majesty, and his Imperial Highness the Great Duke, followed by the Knights of this Order, walked in Procession from the Cazan Church to the Monastery of St. Alexander Newski; at the Great Gate of which they were received by the Archbishop of St. Petersburgh, and conducted to the Chapel, where they heard Divine Service. As soon as that Ceremony was ended, the principal Clergy had the Honour of kissing the Empress's Hand. At Twelve o'Clock the Guns of the Fortress and Admiralty were fired, and her Imperial Majesty, attended as before, proceeded to the Summer Palace, where she received the Comp'iments of the Foreign Ministers and the Chief Nobility. She afterwards dined in Publick with his Imperial Highness the Great Duke, and the Knights of the Order: During the Repast a Concert of Vocal and Instrumental Musick was performed; and, at every Health that was drank, the Guns were fired in the usual Number. At Night there was a grand Ball at Court, and the whole City was illuminated.

Cadiz, September 26. Two Days ago the Spanish Ships of War, San Fernando, of 80 Guns, and the Brillante of 60 Guns, with the Astræa and Punto-Fixo Frigates, arrived in this Bay from the Havana, and are said to have brought Home between two and three Millions of Dollars for the Commerce.

Copenhagen, October 11. The whole Royal Family accompanied the Princess Sophia Magdalena to Elseneur on Tuesday the 7th Instant; and on the 8th her Royal Highness passed the Sound to Helsinbourg, where she was received by the Prince her Consort, and a Deputation from the Senate to compliment her upon her Arrival in the Territories of Sweden.

Dresden, October 12. The Electress was last Friday declared by her Physicians to be out of Danger; and this Morning Te Deum is to be sung in the Court Chapel for her Royal Highness's happy Recovery; and the Court is, on that Account, to appear this Day in great Gala.

St. James's, October 21.

The King has been pleased to order a Congé d'Elire to the Precentor and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David, empowering them to elect a Bishop of that See, the same being void by the Translation of the Right Reverend Dr. Robert Lowth, late Bishop thereof, to the See of Oxford: And a Letter recommending to the said Precentor and Chapter Charles Moss, Doctor in Divinity, to be by them elected Bishop of the said See of St. David.

Lord Chamberlain's Office,
October 21, 1766.

This is to give Notice to all Peers and Peeresses, to Privy Councillors and their Wives, and to Foreign Ministers and their Wives, who propose to attend the Ceremony of the Christening of her Royal Highness the Princess Royal, on Monday next the 27th Instant, that they are to assemble, between the Hours of Six and Seven that Evening, in the Queen's Presence-Chamber and Drawing-Room at St. James's Palace.

St. James's, October 21, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, on Wednesday the 15th Day of this Instant October, about Seven or Eight in the Morning, an anonimous threatening incendiary Letter was found under the Threshold of the Shop-Door of James Poole, of the City

City of Norwich, Esq; directed as hereunder, and containing the Words and Letters following, viz.

" For Mr. Pooll Grocher in Norwich"

" Mr. Pooll

" of you Juſtes of the Paſe that if Bakers and the
" Buchers and market peopel if thay do not fall
" thar Commorits at a reaſnabell rate as thay do at
" other Markets thare will be ſuch Rayſen as never
" was known for your vinegar hoſes and your Taller
" Chandler and fine Houſe will be ſat on fire all on
" one Night for we are detarmed we will have our
" Minds as wall you have your minds ant you all
" grand Rouges for to ſuffer the Bakers to hain
" the flower as deare as to was before but tis to
" Lat you all know that we will Riſe 9 hundred
" Men and no Boyes for we will clare all before us
" and if we have not a now we will rais twiſe 9
" hundred"

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in Writing the ſaid anonimous threatening incendiary Letter, and in putting it under the Threſhold of the Shop-Door of the ſaid James Poole, as above mentioned, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Perſon who actually wrote the ſame) who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the ſaid Facts, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

H. S. CONWAY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Magiſtrates of the City of Norwich aforeſaid, do hereby promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, (except as above excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by

St. James's, October 21, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That Jonathan Gleed (who keeps the Roſe Tavern in the Pariſh of St. Michael at Plea, in the City of Norwich) did, on Friday the 17th Day of this Inſtant October, about Twelve o'Clock at Night, after the Company he had had that Evening at his Houſe were gone, upon his going to ſet up ſome Tobacco-Diſhes on a Shelf in the Paſſage or Entry of his ſaid Houſe, near the Street Door, where his Tobacco-Diſhes were uſually kept, find, upon a Tobacco-Diſh on the ſaid Shelf, which had not been uſed that Evening, but which ſtood neareſt the Street Door of his ſaid Houſe, an anonymous threatening incendiary Letter, directed, as hereunder, and containing the Words, Letters, and Figures following, viz.

" To
" Jn° Pattaſon,
" Eſq;
" in
" Norwich
" Oct. 16, 1766.

" Sir,

" The party wh whom I am their Cheif and was
" an Eye Witneſs to your generoſity and lenity to
" which cheifly you owe your Protection amidſt the
" Variety of Paſſions that have Inflamed the breaſt of
" an Injured and Inraged people they have launched
" frequently upon Incomiums of you and hope you
" will further merit their good Will—the Subſequent
" diſcours is particularly adapted to you and the Cor-
" poration which is in brief, as follows,———We
" are a ſelect body which are determined at all Events
" to chaſtiſe monopolizers and thoſe particular Gen-
" tleman whoſe diſtinguiſhed bravery was Evident
" in defeating a few miſerable wretches? the City
" had been of a flame laſt night, which was Thurſ-
" day, but I uſed all the Eloquence I was Maſter of
" and got leave to write to you which is the laſt time
" I can intercede in your behalf the time draw near
" If you have a mind to ſave the City and yourſelf
" Immediately on Saturday Morning alter the price
" of moſt Eatables for the preſent—in the interim I'll
" do all I durſt to prevail upon them which will be
" impoſſible without ſuch an Alteration—therefore
" for God Sake if you have any regard for your own
" Safety do what is commanded or expect the dire
" Event, as for the poor Soldiers I pity them for by
" God we neither give nor receive Quarter but are de-
" termined to periſh by the Sword as death will be a
" deliverance—The land is fertile and bring forth
" well cultivated fruits in due Seaſon but knavery
" on one hand and pollicy on the other have made
" things thus artificially dear but woe to Mr Pool—
" the attack will begin in four different parts and
" thoſe that do not fall by the Sword ſhall by the
" flames——You will be out of danger for you can
" look of this noble Sentence of Horace without any
" check. Hic murus ahenous eſto nil concere ſibi
" nulla palleſcere culpa."

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in Writing the ſaid anonymous threatening Letter, and in laying or putting the ſame in the Place above-deſcribed, is, hereby, pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Perſon who actually wrote the ſaid Letter) who ſhall diſcover his, or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the ſaid Facts, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

H. S. CONWAY.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Magiſtrates of Norwich do hereby promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any Perſon (except as before excepted) making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid; to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
